with special guests:

shortandfew

Type your own front cover using some of the machines on display with art, poetry or love notes - and turn it in to a hand stitched book to keep or give away. Drop in and give it a go.

qwertyzone

David Trapps is an experienced typewriter engineer with expert knowledge who has repaired and restored many different machines. Bring yours along if it needs a little tlc.

typedbyolly

Olly May creates bespoke typewriter art from his love of music and literature. Every lyric and every quote is hand-typed to create iconic eye catching pieces of art.
